CHAD MILLER & THE GOOD FORTUNE

Chad Miller and The Good Fortune are an up-and-coming Texas Country/Americana band, based out of Amarillo, Texas. With Chad Miller on Lead Vocals and rhythm guitar, Andrew Fox on Lead Guitar, Jody Miller on Drums, and Dub Wood on Bass, they bring a unique blend of classic rock, country, and Americana music to the table.

Chad started playing guitar and writing songs at 10 years old. During high school and college, he's played with and fronted multiple bands, and after college, made the grind through the singer/songwriter circuit throughout Texas, Oklahoma, and New Mexico, before forming The Good Fortune.

Jody Miller (Chad's younger brother) has toured with several bands including western swing legend Jody Nix & The Texas Playboys, the Americana/rock band Dix Hat Band, and blues legend Scott Ellison.

Dub Wood has played with many bands in the Lubbock area, but is most known for his bass work and being a founding member of the band No Dry County.

Andrew Fox is another hot commodity, and is the go-to hired gun in the Amarillo area, playing in more bands than can be named.

The guys formed CM&TGF in 2017, and released their first full-length, 10-song album in July of 2020. The Good Fortune's original material combines a rock n' roll band feel with country and blues guitar work, catchy lyrics and a touch of twang. Their influences span such greats as Bob Wills, The Allman Brothers, Eagles, George Strait, and Red-Dirt legends like Randy Rogers, Wade Bowen, and Sean McConnell.

Chad Miller and The Good Fortune are available for bars, dancehalls, clubs, festivals, dances, corporate functions, and private parties.

Chad Miller: Welcome to Tulia

Hailing from the small town of Tulia, TX in the panhandle of our great state comes the melodic sounds of Chad Miller. Chad was brought up on the original Texas Country music of Bob Willis and that good ole Western swing. You can feel Chad's heart and soul being poured out in any song he writes or sings. He brings a somewhat gruff sound to his voice as well that leaves you listening to a very unique singer/songwriter. Chad started out by learning popular cover songs like most of us in this industry, but his strong suit is for sure his ability to write engaging original songs. He has a way all his own of telling stories through song and we at the office are very grateful that Chad found us on Instagram. He is a singer/songwriter you do not want to pass up on. If you're up and around the panhandle area, stop in and see Chad live! Unique all his own is his "virtual tip jar" which we had never seen before and though that was very clever. Keep up the good work Chad, hope to see you our live one day soon my friend!
